

Quality of References (35 Points)	Content (40 Points)
Dates-When the paper was published. Most recent papers should get more points/consideration.	Comprehensive Coverage of Topic- Students demonstrate a thorough understanding of what is known and unknown about their topic by the scientific community. They have included references and content summaries that answer their research question.
Qualities of References-References are relevant to the students' research question. They provide a comprehensive knowledge base of the student's topic.	Clear Understanding of the Question- The student should demonstrate a complete comprehension of their research question and supporting sections should be clear and defined.
Citation Format-Free of errors such as: spelling, grammar, vocabulary, etc. Should be in MLA format.	Format- The outline should be ordered and organized with a clear flow of the topic.